Purpose

To provide a systematic approach to the treatment of plagiarism in academic work at the Institute of Internal Auditors-Australia (IIA-Australia). The policy is intended to promote honesty in learning and assessment and respect for the work of others. Contravention of this policy will result in candidates being penalised (refer to Policy P14: Code of Academic Conduct).

Scope

This policy applies to all candidates undertaking higher education programs with the IIA-Australia.

Definitions

P1.1	Plagiarism	The presentation of the works of another person(s) as though they are one's own by failing to properly acknowledge that person(s) and the work concerned.
P1.2	Intentional Plagiarism	Plagiarism associated with intent to deceive.
P1.3	Unintentional Plagiarism	Plagiarism associated with a lack of understanding of plagiarism or a lack of skill in referencing/acknowledging others' work (still a breach of this policy).
P1.4	Collusion	The unauthorised act of a candidate presenting work, which is the outcome of directly working with others, as his or her own.
P1.5	Cooperative Learning	The informal process of candidates interacting to enhance their achievement of learning outcomes, which is encouraged.
P1.6	Group work	The authorised act of a group of candidates producing either a common assessable work or an individually assessed piece of work as part of a larger project.

Policy statement

Plagiarism, either intentional or unintentional, is a practice which runs counter to the IIA-Australia values of ethics and integrity. There is an expectation that candidates will prepare and submit work which is their own and which acknowledges the work of others.

Responsibility

Education Committee

- ❖ Make accessible to staff and candidates the policies and procedures of the IIA-Australia concerning plagiarism.
- ❖ Establish processes to support the consistent implementation of IIA-Australia policies relating to plagiarism.
- ❖ Provide processes for candidates to appeal decisions arising from plagiarism.
- ❖ Provide candidate support through the provision of information on acceptable referencing techniques.
- ❖ Support the use of appropriate referencing techniques.

Education Manager

- ❖ Ensure the policies and procedures of the IIA-Australia concerning plagiarism are known and implemented.
- ❖ Support the use of appropriate referencing techniques.
- ❖ Provide information to candidates on acceptable referencing practice.
- ❖ Oversee the investigation of reported plagiarism breaches.
- ❖ Provide a ruling on outcomes of plagiarism breaches.
- ❖ Maintain confidential records of previous breaches.

Academic Staff

- ❖ Know and consistently implement the policies and procedures of the IIA-Australia concerning plagiarism.
- ❖ Educate candidates in the correct use of referencing conventions and how to avoid unintentional plagiarism.
- ❖ Provide examples to candidates of appropriate referencing techniques and practice.
- ❖ Ensure that candidates understand the difference between cooperative learning, group work and collusion.
- ❖ Be vigilant in the detection of plagiarism.
- ❖ Report suspected plagiarism to the Education Manager for further investigation.
- ❖ Be aware of, and respect, the practices of other cultures/cultural backgrounds.
- ❖ Provide transparent and consistent feedback to candidates about issues relating to referencing.
- ❖ Set a good example through their own practice.

Candidate

- ❖ Understand and comply with the policy and procedures of the IIA-Australia concerning plagiarism and seek help if unclear about its requirements.
- ❖ Be familiar with, and apply, the referencing practices acceptable to the IIA-Australia.
- ❖ Ensure that all sources of information are appropriately acknowledged.
- ❖ Take all reasonable precautions to ensure own work cannot be copied and used in another candidate's assessable work.
- ❖ Candidates are required to declare that any submission is their own work by attaching a cover sheet to all assignments submitted which acknowledges the following:
 - I have read and understood the Institute of Internal Auditors' Candidate Plagiarism Policy.
 - I understand that failure to comply with the Candidate Plagiarism Policy P1 can lead to IIA-Australia commencing proceedings against me for potential candidate misconduct. (Refer to Policy P14: Code of Academic Conduct).
 - This work is substantially my own, and to the extent that any part of this work is not my own I have indicated this by acknowledging the source of that part or those parts of the work.
 - This assignment has not previously been submitted for assessment in this or any other module of this course or at any other institution. Submitting the same piece of work twice (or a significant part thereof, as determined by IIA-Australia administrators, tutors and/or examiners) will be regarded as an offence of 'self-plagiarism' and will be processed under Policy P1: Candidate Plagiarism).

I understand that this assignment may be checked for plagiarism by electronic or other means.

Penalties

The specific penalty for any breach of the plagiarism policy is determined after an investigation.

Penalties vary according to the severity of the breach and the candidate's conduct history. Penalties may take the form of a warning, academic probation, an automatic fail grade of the unit in which the plagiarism occurred, or exclusion from the course. Fees are not refundable where a candidate is excluded for plagiarism.

The IIA-Australia reserves the right to notify the candidate's employer of any proven violation of the Academic Code of Conduct and to keep investigation information on our records.

Appeals

Appeals against any penalty imposed can be lodged with the Candidate Conduct and Appeals Committee in accordance with Policy P4: Candidate Grievance.
