A conflict of interest can create an appearance of impropriety that can undermine confidence in the Internal Auditor, the Internal Audit activity, and the profession. A conflict of interest could impair an individual's ability to perform his or her duties and responsibilities objectively.

Internal Auditors are not to provide audit services for work for which they may previously have been responsible. Internal Audit may provide assurance services where they had previously performed consulting services, provided the nature of the consulting did not impair objectivity, and provided individual objectivity is managed when assigning resources to the engagement.
